Trapped

With a loud clunk, the light disappeared. Mr Fuzzles McCupcake watched in horror as his life flashed before his eyes. Images of tinned tuna, ear scratches and the patch in front of the window where the sun comes in taunted him mercilessly. He looked helplessly around at the dense nothingness that now surrounded him and let out a long, pitiful wail.

Fuzzles pondered about the events that had led to his inevitable doom. It had seemed so safe, so light, so warm. Yet, in an instance, it had all been snatched away from him. Calculating that it had been at least 30 minutes since his last meal, Fuzzles felt around his fur for signs that he might already be wasting away. Then, just as the last flicker of hope was ebbing away, he heard the most beautiful sound.

"Fuzz, stop making such a racket! What have I told you about not going into the wardrobe?"
