14th February 2023

Dear Mums, Dads and Carers,

World Book Day 2023

Thursday, 2nd March is World Book Day! We are really excited about the activities that we have planned.

Following last year's success, we will be organising a village orienteering activity for families to take part in together, and the book related entertainment will continue throughout the week.

On Thursday 2nd March, we would like to ask the children to come to school dressed as a story book character or in their pyjamas, ready to cosy down to a read a book (slippers are optional!)

Join in with this year's competition:

We would like to invite you to get creative and celebrate your favourite books by joining in with a book cover competition. For £2.50 the children will receive a wooden book cover approx. A5 in size. The front should be decorated using decoupage, colouring, paint or a combination of mediums to represent a book cover or a series of books. The decorations will then be judged and, of course, there are prizes to be won! Money raised will go towards developing classroom libraries. There are a limited number of book decorations (50), therefore they will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

Please pay on Parent Pay if you would like to purchase a wooden book decoration. Book covers will be sent home on Friday. Once decorated they should be returned to school on Friday 3rd March ready for judging.

More info about the week's events will be sent out soon.

World Book Day is all about celebrating our love of books and reading for pleasure. The children love talking about books and a special week of immersion in brilliant books. If you would like to donate towards the purchase of more books for our class libraries, please send a cash donation in on World Book Day with your child or visit our Amazon wish list:

We thank you for all your continued support,

Mrs Jane
